

REMARKS

The specification has been amended to enter a reference to the parent application 10/025,846, which is required under 35 USC 120 and to correct a few errors noted in the original filing.

The claims have been amended to remove those claims identical to the parent US application, which are moving to issuance, and to enter a claim set defining an invention disclosed but not claimed in the parent application.

Formal drawings have been provided to replace those originally filed in the parent application.

Favorable consideration is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,
